

Illinois Prairie Community Foundation is a local grant-focused public foundation dedicated to creating a healthy, vibrant and sustainable community through engaged philanthropy, dedicated leadership and community knowledge and resources. For the past 20 years, IPCF has brought together the financial resources of individuals, families and businesses to effectively support nonprofits in the community. IPCF encourages individuals to share their gifts and build permanent funds in our four-county service area (McLean, DeWitt, Livingston and Logan counties).

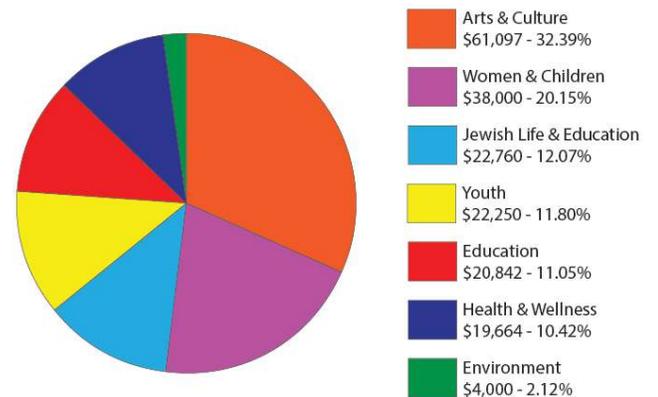

OUR MISSION:

To connect people who care with causes that matter by offering philanthropic leadership, organization and grant-making for the long-term enrichment of our community.

OUR WORK IN THE COMMUNITY:

- IPCF receives, invests and manages contributions, growing and preserving permanent funds for the needs of our area
- IPCF provides donors flexible, convenient giving options
- IPCF is a community leader, convening agencies and coordinating resources to create positive change; its staff and board have broad knowledge regarding community issues and needs
- IPCF partners with professional advisors to create highly effective approaches to charitable giving
- IPCF accepts a wide variety of assets and can facilitate even the most complex forms of giving while offering maximum tax advantage for most gifts under federal law
- IPCF builds endowment funds that benefit the community forever and create personal legacies
- IPCF offers an economical, simplified version of a private foundation through Donor Advised Funds
- IPCF helps emerging charities achieve nonprofit status through Fiscal Sponsorship
- IPCF believes that one doesn't have to be wealthy to make an impact on the community. Working together, we can achieve much to serve our area.
