

2024 MIRZA/ARTS & CULTURE GRANTS INFORMATION

DESCRIPTION

IPCF's Mirza/Arts & Culture Grants are open to programs and projects that focus on art, music, and theatre education and enrichment, and the performing and visual arts. The David and Kay Williams Music Education Grant focuses on providing creative music education experiences for all ages and abilities and uses the Mirza/Arts & Culture Grant application (see "Selection Criteria" revised 2023 at <https://ilprairiecf.org/david-kay-williams-music-education-endowment>).

Applications may be submitted from February 1 – February 29, 2024

Applications must be submitted via online portal; no paper applications will be accepted

If you apply for a Mirza/Arts & Culture Grant, you may not apply for the identical program to the General or Shulman Jewish Education & Life Grants, which run concurrently with the Mirza/Arts & Culture Grants. You may, however, apply in multiple grant categories if the applications are for distinctly different programs and fit the criteria listed for the particular grant category.

- ~$72,000 is available
- Funding requests should be for a minimum of $500; the range of grant awards in 2023 was $500 to $3,500 (average grant award was $2,172). To see programs that were funded previously, visit <https://ilprairiecf.org/grant-recipients>.
- Applicants are required to use a budget document developed by the IPCF's grants committees; budget document can be downloaded through the online grant application; Word and Excel files are available
- Submission deadline is February 29, 2024 at 5:00 p.m. (Central Time); the online grant application system automatically closes all applications at the 5 p.m. deadline
- Grant applicants will be notified of the outcome of their grant request by end of April 2024
- Grant funding is for the period of June 1, 2024 through May 31, 2025
- Those organizations awarded grants will be sent a link to a Grant Agreement on the grant portal; the Executive Director, CEO or President of the Board must approve the document, which outlines conditions and requirements for accepting the grant award.

Grant awards will be distributed beginning in May 2024.

We regret that not all projects can be funded. A denial should not be viewed as a negative reflection on an organization, but rather a reflection on the number of applications received and the amount of funding available.
